INJURIES

Deputy Edward Clark

Deputy Edward Clark was transported to Saint Francis Hospital emergency room in a radio car driven by Deputy Steven Shirley. He sustained one gunshot to the left upper chest area which was stopped by his ballistic vest. He sustained bruising and swelling to the flesh but no penetration of the bullet into his skin.

Suspect Winston Hayes

Initial reports to Homicide Detectives who contacted the Harbor General Hospital emergency room physician indicatedSuspect Hayes sustained four gunshot wounds including one to his left shoulder, one to his left jaw, one to his left index finger and one to his left ankle. The E/R doctor also advised that the toxilogical screening indicated the suspect tested positive for cocaine in his system.

Subsequent reports indicated the jaw and shoulder injuries were gunshots but the ankle and finger injuries were almost certainly from broken glass cuts and not gunshots. On May 16, 2005, Homicide Detectives contacted medical staff at Harbor General Hospital who provided an expended bullet that had been recovered from the suspect during surgery. They delivered the bullet to Scientific Services Bureau where it was booked as evidence.

PHYSICAL EVIDENCE

One-hundred and nineteen expended shell casings were accounted for and distributed on surfaces in various locations in the vicinity of the [redacted] (& [redacted]) block of Butler Avenue. Tire skid marks attributed to the suspect vehicle were also identified on Butler Avenue.

Bullet impact strikes were noted in single family dwellings on Butler Avenue and in an apartment building on Myrrh Street. (Refer to Exhibit G, scene sketch/diagram and Exhibit H, field report prepared by Scientific Services Bureau, Forensic Identification Specialist).

INVESTIGATOR OBSERVATIONS

The location was comprised primarily of single family residential homes. The street was a somewhat narrower than average width for the typical tract home development. Most of the front yards were secured by both low-height retainer walls and wrought iron fences and gates.

LIGHTING AND WEATHER CONDITIONS

Hours of darkness on a clear night.

SYNOPSIS

Compton Station units were dispatched a "shots fired" [redacted] call in the [redacted] block of Butler Avenue in Compton. The watch commander, who was in the field, broadcast additional information about the call, which led deputies to believe that the suspect was associated with the [redacted] and was possibly also associated with a prior [redacted] The handling unit attempted to make a traffic stop of the suspect but the suspect failed to yield, and the deputies then went in pursuit. Shortly after the Aero unit's arrival, the pursuit went into surveillance mode. Units shut off all lights and stopped on Myrrh Street, just north of the [redacted] block of Butler. Within less than 30 seconds, the Aero unit advised the suspect had driven up on the sidewalk and it "looks like he's going to get out." Ground units which were stopped on Myrrh, then immediately drove southbound and converged in the [redacted] block of Butler. Anticipating a foot pursuit, they exited their radio cars. However, the suspect remained inside his vehicle, backed it off the sidewalk, and drove in reverse to the opposite side of the street, narrowly missing deputies who were on foot. Deputies were positioned on both west and east sides of the street. As the suspect vehicle backed northbound up Butler Avenue and then drove southbound, ten deputies opened fire on the suspect because they were in fear of their and their follow deputies' safety.

A total of 119 rounds were fired by deputies striking the suspect in the neck and jaw. The gunshot wounds were not life threatening to the suspect. One deputy was struck by gunfire in the left chest but his ballistic vest prevented it from penetrating.

FOR II Chief Ronnie Williams requested an administrative investigation of the incident. The following personnel were named as Subjects:

SUSPECT'S STATEMENTS

Homicide Detectives contacted Suspect Winston Hayes in a treatment room at the hospital. Upon introducing themselves and stating their purpose for contacting him, the suspect told them he didn't know who shot him and the he was parked on the street. They told him that they would need to advise him of his rights before they could question him. He told them he had been smoking what he believed was "Ice," and then he said he didn't want to talk further with investigators until he spoke with his doctor. When detectives told him they would bring the emergency room doctor over to him, the suspect said he was too "high" to talk with them and then he turned away from them, ignoring them.
